MOUNTFORD ESTATE
2010 PURE RIESLING
WAIPARA, NEW ZEALAND

Robert Parker's The Wine Advocate

88 POINTS

The 2010 Pure Riesling has pronounced lime, peach blossom and lemon peel aromas over notes of fresh herbs and fennel seed plus a whiff of chalk dust. Light bodied and fully sweet in the mouth, it has crisp acid and lower alcohol, finishing long and steely.

Bob Campbell for The Real Review

89 POINTS

Quite sweet Riesling with some honeyed botrytis influence. Surprisingly light-bodied with fairly soft acidity. Almost cloying but with good purity.

Andrew Graham for The Australian Wine Review

93 POINTS

Pure, deep, sherbety and overt. The middle is rich, the finish long and juicy. That sweetness and acidity lingers through the finish. Long and juicy finish. A fraction fat and sweet? Still luscious wine indeed. Nice.

Jamie Goode is The Wine Anorak

93 POINTS

Complex, spicy and mineral with high acidity under the pear, melon and citrus fruit. Lovely concentration and great tension between the acid and sugar.

FERMENTATION

Fermented in stainless steel using the yeast CY3079.

MATURATION

Left on gross lees for 4 months until finished ferment and then racked and left on light lees for another 4 months.
